1. What does “Creating Change for Equity” mean/represent to you? How does this inform the work of your department/unit/program?
2. How do the student protests/concerns over the murder of Josiah Lawson, financial insecurity, basic needs (food, housing), mental health needs, or HSU’s budget crisis inform your unit’s work?
3. What does it mean to you when students declare the university does nothing to address the issues of the murder of Josiah Lawson, financial insecurity, basic needs (food, housing), or mental health needs?
4. What concerns do you have about the numerous factors that are driving down student enrollment? Do you discuss your concerns about the health and vitality of HSU? Are you concerned about your program’s ability to attract/recruit new students in the future, attract/recruit new faculty in the future, attract /recruit new staff in the future?
